

NSB Residents' Coalition Education Seminar
NSB – LOVING OUR HISTORY!

September 21, 2023

6:30-8:00 p.m.

Brannon Center

105 S. Riverside Drive, NSB

Please join us for the third NSB Residents' Coalition Education Seminar. This seminar will feature Greg Holbrook, Executive Director of the New Smyrna Museum of History; Ann Harrell, Executive Director of the Mary S. Harrell Black Heritage Museum; Scott Sidler, founder of Austin Historical; and Old Buildings lyrics written and produced by Deb Exum. This seminar is for everyone who loves the history of NSB and wants to know more.

Celebrate Our History with Greg Holbrook's Historic NSB -1768 to Today and his overview of upcoming programs and events at the New Smyrna Museum of History along with Ann Harrell's highlights of the Mary S. Harrell Black Heritage Museum.

Every Old Home Tells A Story! Scott Sidler is a certified preservation contractor who has been restoring historic and vintage homes since the late 1990's. His work has been featured in Fine Home Building, This Old House and Preservation Magazine among others. Scott is also a bestselling author of Living in the Past, Old Windows Made Easy and Old House Basics. He provides DIY workshops in person as well as on TheCraftsmanBlog.com and YouTube@TheCraftsmanBlog. He will present why preserving our history matters and the economic benefits, successful projects, and Q&A. Scott is a dynamic individual who inspires owners of old homes, those considering purchasing an old home and the rest of us who admire and love NSB's wonderful old homes and buildings.

Charming Home Tour books featuring the 17 homes that were on tour from 2018 to 2021 will be on sale for $20 (Cash or Check).

Admission is free.
